

On May 8 and 9 2006 the 11th German Congress on Crime Prevention (GCOCP) will take place in Nuremberg and attract more than 1.500 experts giving a national as well as an international insight to the field of crime prevention.

Under the patronage of Dr. Edmund Stoiber, Prime Minister of the state of Bavaria, the Main Focus "Sport and Prevention" will highlight this important subject within crime prevention and focus not only on the 2006 FIFA Football World Cup held in Germany. Next to the Main Focus presentations to various fields of crime prevention can be attended within the Open Forum. The Exhibition provides information and special events of over 100 projects and institutions that display their work. At the Third Children's and Youth University professors giving special lectures to pupils and last not least crime prevention films will be shown at the Film Forum.

International guests are more than welcome: There is an International Package offered with English translation of lectures and walkabouts of the Exhibition. Information of projects, institutions or work can also be presented by our international guests!
