2nd Annual International Forum
within the German Congress on Crime Prevention
June 2 and 3, 2008 - Leipzig / Germany

<http://www.aif-prevention.org>

The Annual International Forum is implemented within the German Congress on Crime Prevention (GCOCP), an event which attracts yearly (since 1995) more than 2.500 people in the field of crime prevention.

The objectives are the presenting and exchanging of current and basic questions of crime prevention and its effectiveness, bringing together partners within the field of crime prevention, functioning as a forum for the practice, helping to get into contact at the international level, discussing implementation strategies for practice, politics, administration and research.

Target Groups are administration, health system, youth welfare, judiciary, churches, local authorities, media, politics, police, prevention projects, schools or science.

Participants of the Annual International Forum will therefore have the chance to also visit the 13th German Congress on Crime Prevention which features:

- Opening Plenum (Engl. sim. translation)
- Closing Plenum (Engl. sim translation)
- Guided walk of the Congress Exhibition where over 150 institutions display their work (Engl. Language)
- Evening Reception June 2, 2008
- Up to 20 lectures around the Main Topic, up to 20 lectures within the Open Forum, Poster Session, Internet-, Filmforum, on-stage special Event Programme and the Youth, Children and Senior University (all German language).

Connected to this year's congress is the European Workshop "Probation meets Prevention" organized by GCOCP and CEP (in English language). It focuses on practitioners in the field of probation. For more information please visit: <http://www.cep-probation.org>
