The Annual International Forum is implemented within the German Congress on Crime Prevention, an event which attracts yearly (since 1995) more than 2.500 people in the field of crime prevention.

The objectives are the presenting and exchanging of current and basic questions of crime prevention and its effectiveness, bringing together partners within the field of crime prevention, functioning as a forum for the practice, helping to get into contact at the international level, discussing implementation strategies for practice, politics, administration and research.

Target Groups are administration, health system, youth welfare, judiciary, churches, local authorities, media, politics, police, prevention projects, schools or science.

Participants of the Annual International Forum will therefore have the chance to also visit the 12th German Congress on Crime Prevention which features:

Opening Plenum (Engl. sim. translation)

Closing Plenum (Engl. sim. translation)

Guides walk of the Congress Exhibition where over 150 institutions display their work (Engl. language)

Evening Reception June 18, 2007

Up to 20 lectures around the Main Topic, up to 20 lectures within the Open Forum, Poster Session, Internet-, Film- and Dialogue Forum (World Café), on-stage special Event Programme and the Youth and Childrens University (all German language).

The Annual International Forum presents five lectures in English language (with German sim. translation) on both congress days June 18 and 19, 2007 (Hall 7) from known international experts in crime prevention:
