Status 28/03/2018, subject to change without notice

Accommodation tax of the city of Dresden:

The City of Dresden has been levying an accommodation tax since 01.07.2015, which has to be collected and paid by the hotels for the city. For this reason, this fee will be charged at the reception desk on arrival. Only with this signed form from the employer you can be exempted from tax for professional reasons.

Exception: The two Motel One hotels already have a flat-rate exemption from tax. No further proof is required from the participants.
