

Prof. Dr. Irvin Waller: Masterclass on Crime Prevention
Monday, 20 May 2019, room "Backstage II"
4:00 pm to 4:45 pm

An advanced training course (Master Class) is planned on Making Crime Prevention Happen. It will empower participants to do more to: apply what works in crime prevention; implement the essentials for application of successes across cities and countries; promote the benefits to reducing crime and taxes, that accrue from affordable and smart investments; use the little known secrets to get buy-in, and much more.

It will be held 5-7 December, 2019, Hanover, Germany. The participants will be committed and well informed colleagues from Germany and abroad, including officials in governments and cities, non-governmental groups, graduate students, journalists.
